

SOCIAL URBAN PARK
MUSEUM
OF CAPITALISM

Transforms the museum into a public space that democratizes its experience through a suspended walkways that connects the activities and context. It spans throughout the structure . the visual presentation is comprehensible and pure, evoking a modest mystical flair. The structure of the architectural composition is intended to be simple and very strong at the same time, based on so many direct and indirect oppositions.